6. PERSONAL STRENGTHS AND INTERESTS

I do not know about myself in terms of personnel strength. All I can say is that I can dedicate more time to my evangelism work, counselling and spiritual guidance without feeling any physical problems.

INTERESTS:

My personal interest are listening to music, singing and reading biographies and autobiographies of individuals whose work I admired.

I also like attending meetings where I learn about the challenges of individuals as well as organizations.

7. HOBBIES:

-Gospel music (singing and listening)

-Hiking

8. The church is relevant to people and society today in as far as it can continue to provide them with such services as spiritual guidance and counselling as well as conducting ceremonies such as marriage and funeral.
